DISCUSSION AGENDA

1. Review and Approval to Set Public Hearing for Accessory Structures

Director Perkins asked the Commission to review the final draft of proposed changes to Chapter 16 of the Milliken Land Use Code as it relates to Accessory Structures.

Discussion from the Commission was the downtown area and continuing to allow a zero front setback or to change it to a 15 foot front setback.

Discussion on the areas of Town that are a Planned Unit Development (PUD), have Home Owners Associations (HOA's) and the areas of Towns that do not have either. Most of the housing located on the east side of Town are a PUD and have HOA's.

Discussion was in regard to the R-3 Multi-Family Residential and the accessory building percentage from the proposed 65% to 30%. R-2 zoned areas will be changed from the proposed 45% to 35%.

Further discussion was in regard to downtown commercial. This accessory building percentage will be changed from 85% to 55%. Commercial areas outside of the downtown area will be 55% also.

Industrial uses will be discussed at a later date.

2. Review and Approval to Set Public Hearing for Fences and Walls

Director Perkins reviewed Staff's recommended changes to Chapter 16 of the Milliken Land Use Code as it relates to Fences and Walls.

Perkins indicated the Fences and Sight Triangle Regulations flyer that staff inserted from the City of Wheatridge and asked the Commissions thought on this diagram. The Commission agreed that this diagram provides a better depiction than the one currently in the Code.

Perkins reviewed the proposed text changes to the Code with the Commission.
